Integrated Marketplace Participant Training Taskforce

Purpose

The Integrated Marketplace Participant Training Taskforce will collaborate with SPP Customer Training to provide input and feedback to the SPP Operations Training Working Group (OTWG) and Change Working Group (CWG) regarding training for the Integrated Marketplace implementation.

Scope of Activities

In carrying out its purpose, the Integrated Marketplace Participant Training Taskforce will:

1. Review reporting and evaluations to gauge the effectiveness of Integrated Marketplace training.
2. Report and discuss feedback from individual trainees who have completed online and scheduled training.
3. Ensure training follows the program plan and timeline for development and implementation of the Integrated Marketplace.
4. Identify potential gaps in training offerings and determine the best course of action to fill those gaps.
5. SPP Staff Member representative of the Integrated Marketplace Participant Training Taskforce will update the SPP Change Working Group (CWG) and share information back with the taskforce as needed.
6. Chair or designee of the Integrated Marketplace Participant Training Taskforce will update the SPP Operations Training Working Group (OTWG) and share information back with the taskforce as needed.

Representation

The Integrated Marketplace Participant Training Taskforce shall be comprised of a chair, co-chair, SPP staff representative and additional stakeholders directly involved with training and market participation. Efforts should be made to select members representing a broad geographic range of SPP market participants. Members should also be selected based on exposure specifically to market training.

Duration

Taskforce will meet regularly through program evaluation and follow up of the Integrated Marketplace.
