SPP STAKEHOLDER TRAINING REGISTRATION AND PAYMENT REFUND POLICIES

Registration Policy
Southwest Power Pool is committed to providing training and educational activities intended to further develop SPP stakeholders to enhance and retain the knowledge and skills they require for the reliable operation of the bulk power system and participate effectively and efficiently in SPP’s energy market(s) within North America. All SPP Stakeholder Training events are available for registration via the SPP Learning Center (LMS).

Registration Confirmations
Confirmation notices are emailed to participants upon registration. Virtual attendance instructions for all virtual instructor led trainings (VILTs) including SPP’s Power Restoration Drills will be emailed upon registration or verification of payment, when applicable.

Course Payment for Non-Members
If an organization is a member of Southwest Power Pool, Inc. its employees may participate in customer training events at no cost. Non-members wishing to participate in SPP training events will be charged a fee associated with a particular training event. Payments will be made at the time of registration in the SPP Learning Center using a credit card. For questions regarding payments, contact LMS@spp.org.

Cancellations, Withdrawals and Substitutions SPP reserves the right to reschedule, combine or cancel any class based on minimum enrollment requirements. To withdraw from a class, participants should access their transcript in the SPP Learning Center and click the Withdraw link to the right of the training item. The SPP Learning Center will generate an email confirming the withdrawal. Substitutions from the same company are permitted. Non-member substitutions are permitted if payment has been received. Please contact LMS@spp.org for all substitutions.

Refund Policy Instructor-Led Events

For our instructor-led classroom training events, our policy is as follows:
Once enrolled, participants are welcome to move to another event date at any time prior to the scheduled training event, where seats are available.
